

Radio and Television (TOP 0604.00)

September 2022

Prepared by the South Central Coast Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research

Program Recommendation

This report was compiled by the South Central Coast¹ Center of Excellence to provide regional labor market data for the program recommendation – Radio and Television. This report can help determine whether there is demand in the local labor market that is not being met by the supply from programs of study (CCC and non-CCC) that align with this occupation group. This report covers the South Central Coast Region and all of Los Angeles County.

Key Findings

- In the South Central Coast region and Los Angeles County, the number of jobs related to Radio and Television are expected to increase for all four related occupations.
- Radio and Television is anticipated to experience a low risk of automation for Producers and Directors & Film and Video Editors, but a medium risk for both Camera Operators, Television, Video, and Film & Audio and Video Technicians.
- In 2020 there were 9,382 regional completions in programs related to the occupations identified as related to Radio and Television and 20,048 openings, indicating an undersupply.
- Typical entry-level education is a postsecondary nondegree award for Audio and Video Technicians and a Bachelor's degree for the other three related occupations.
- Completers of Radio and Television programs from the 2018-2019 academic year in Los Angeles had a median annual wage upon completion of $23,704.
- 42% of students are employed within a year after completing a program.
- 28% of students attained a living wage within a year of completion.
- Completers experienced an average of +24% change in earnings after exiting.
- 64% of students were part-time, 6% skill builders, 35% first-generation, and 80% economically disadvantaged.

Student Outcomes

The CTE LaunchBoard provides student outcome data on the effectiveness of CTE programs. The following student outcome information was collected from exiters of the Radio and Television Programs (TOP: 0604.00). Because the occupations described in this report are heavily concentrated in Los Angeles, regional data for the Los Angeles area is provided.

- Completers of Radio and Television programs from the 2018-2019 academic year in Los Angeles had a median annual wage upon completion of $23,704.
- 42% of students are employed within a year after completing a program.
- 28% of students attained a living wage within a year of completion.
- Completers experienced an average of +24% change in earnings after exiting.
- 64% of students were part-time, 6% skill builders, 35% first-generation, and 80% economically disadvantaged.

Notes

Data included in this analysis represent the labor market demand for relevant positions most closely related to Radio and Television. Traditional labor market information was used to show current and projected employment based on data trends, as well as annual average awards granted by regional community colleges. Real-time labor market information captures job post advertisements for occupations relevant to the field of study and can signal demand and show what employers are looking for in potential employees, but is not a perfect measure of the quantity of open positions. All representations have been produced from primary research and/or secondary review of publicly and/or privately available data and/or research reports. The most recent data available at the time of the analysis was examined; however, data sets are updated regularly and may not be consistent with previous reports. Efforts have been made to qualify and validate the accuracy of the data and findings; however, neither the Centers of Excellence for Labor Market Research (COE), COE host district, nor California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office are responsible for the applications or decisions made by individuals and/or organizations based on this study or its recommendations.
