

Advisory Minutes: Naming of Glass Certificates at San Bernardino Valley College

Attendees (via email correspondence):

- * Luke Wilson, Professional Glass Artist
- * Stephen Lepore, Scientific Glassblower, CNAS Glass Shop, UC Riverside
- * George Bressant, Art Educator
- * Sean Regalado, Art Educator and Adjunct Professor
- * Brian Bartlett, Career Technical Education Instructor
- * Rick Cross, Art Educator

Minutes:

Between April 18 and April 21, 2025, the San Bernardino Valley College Glass Program Advisory Board was invited to participate in an email-based vote to determine formal names for two emerging certificate programs:

- Artistic Glass and Design Certificate
- Scientific Glassblowing Certificate

Advisory board members were provided with five naming options for each certificate and asked to submit their preferred choice for both. The objective was to finalize certificate names that clearly communicate each program's focus, align with professional standards, and support marketing and curriculum efforts.

Key Input:

Luke Wilson: Preferred Option #2 for both certificates

Stephen Lepore: Preferred Option #2 for both certificates

George Bressant: Preferred Option #2 for both certificates

Sean Regalado: Preferred Option #2 for Artistic, Option #5 for Scientific

Brian Bartlett: Preferred Option #4 for Artistic, Option #4 for Scientific

Rick Cross: Preferred Option #2 for Artistic, Option #5 for Scientific

Voting Results:

Artistic Glass Certificate - Selected Name:

Certificate of Achievement in Artistic Glass and Design (5 votes)

Scientific Glass Certificate - Selected Name:

Certificate of Achievement in Scientific Glass Fabrication (3 votes)

Action Items:

- * Submit final certificate names for curriculum and catalog inclusion
- * Use finalized names in all future program development, grant documentation, and outreach materials

The board's input has ensured that the naming of these certificates reflects both industry relevance and educational clarity. The names have been officially adopted for the ongoing development and formalization of the Artistic and Scientific Glass programs at San Bernardino Valley College.
