Yes, it is exactly one year old, so that is ok.

Hi Luke,

I'm uploading the CoA for Special Needs and Neurodiversity. I'd like to use this LMI since it was formally requested via LARC in June '24. Can I use the 1305.20 for approval? I'd like to get this through and on the agenda. Today is the final day for uploading.

Regards,

Good morning Priscilla,

Attached, please find three regional labor market analyses for your requests:

- Special Needs Certificate of Achievement
- Behavior Analysis Certificate of Achievement

- Certificate of Achievement in Dual Language Learning

The Dual Language report is from this month, but please note that the reports for Special Needs and Behavior Analysis utilize LMI data from late last year. These reports are considered valid for one year, so plan accordingly. If those two reports do not work with your program approval timeline, please let us know. We'd be happy to issue updated reports at that time.

If you have any questions after reading the reports, please reach out anytime.

Thank you,
Luke
