

CTE Advisory Meeting Minutes Fall 2023

CTE Advisory Meeting Minutes October 25, 2023 Allied Health, Human Services–Social Work & Counseling, Kinesiology
Voting Members	Member Association
Rachel Dyer	MVC HMS Faculty
Lisa Hausladen	MVC MDA Faculty
Dawna Hughes	CRY-ROP Colton High HEAL Pathway
Cindi Dolan	VDLHS Health Academy
Stephanie Fortini	VVHS Allied Health Academy
Lynell Holden	NIO-HCA Riverside/San Bernadino Counties
Julie Houston	RUHS-BH WET

Drug and alcohol degree passed

Feasibility study for medical billing passed

Request for general support for medical billing curriculum passes

Gaps in behavioral health any issues students are struggling with academic and personal: communication is a major issue for students as they are unable to work through conflict due to COVID isolation, cheating is a major issue , Ai is a further concern, students unable to be off of phones, bachelor/ master level students are struggling with communication, students have unbalanced lives, lack of financial literacy and emotional intelligence, students are unfocused on school due to emotional distress, educators are lacking resources for their own emotional stability, over reliance on AI , lack of personal boundaries, no responsibility is enforced on students, students are insecure and posses a lack of resiliency, lack of socialization, lack of focus due to cellphones, very high educator turnover, students are using Bluetooth earbuds to a detrimental effect, students are lacking self discipline unable to avoid technology to do their schoolwork, students are tardy to school on a constant basis, 504 misuse by parents of students, a higher population of students want to attend middle college

How are employees recruited: employees are commonly recruited through the internet, clinical social workers are needed due to low retention, students are recruited through other schools,

Rachel Dyer moved to approve a new Drug and Alcohol Studies Associate’s Degree program in the HMS (Human Services) Discipline at Moreno Valley College. Lisa Hausladen seconds. Unanimously approved.